

Sing for Pleasure Summer School 2015

Thursday 13th – Sunday 16th August 2015, Keele University, Staffordshire

Choral Courses

Back for a second year, our three choral courses are a popular addition to our annual Summer School. These three day courses are ideal for people coming to Summer School for the first time, or for those who would love to be back with us and can't manage the whole week.

The courses start on Thursday morning with coffee and end after breakfast on Sunday. Each day will consist of a vocal warm-up followed by workshop sessions and refreshment breaks during the day. The friendly atmosphere at Summer School is really special, and there is plenty of opportunity to attend concerts and social activities alongside your workshops. Based at Keele University, the courses are easily accessed from the M6, A34 and A50. Stoke-on-Trent is the nearest railway station, a 10-minute journey away.

WHICH COURSE SHOULD I CHOOSE?

SfP Community Choir

This course is for singers who like to:

- Learn choral music mainly by ear
- Use music occasionally
- Sing pieces in a familiar style
- Sing unison songs, and songs in two and three parts

This course will suit you if you are new to choral singing, or returning after a break.

SfP Chorale

This course is for singers who like to:

- Sing from music, and develop their notation reading skills
- Sing movements from a larger choral work
- Sing in three or more parts

This course will suit you if you already sing in a choir and have some experience with reading music.

SfP Consort

This course is for singers who like to:

- Learn new music quickly, and use their reading skills in mastering new music
- Work intensively on a concert programme
- Sing contemporary, classical choral music, in different languages
- Sing in four or more parts, including singing one or two voices per part

This course will suit you if you are an experienced or trained singer who likes to sing challenging music in a smaller group.

PRICES

£210 (£250 for non-members) – this includes all tuition, music hire, tea/coffee, lunches, evening meals and all social activities.

£90 – B&B accommodation (three night package).

ADDITIONAL OPTIONS

£30 – Additional night of B&B on Wednesday 12th August.

£25 – SfP Membership.
